Summer internship terms and conditions

Interns are expected to maintain a healthy balance between learning new skills and pretending to understand every acronym in meetings. Asking questions is strongly encouraged.